1 Nature of the tasks:

The Directorate General for Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs is responsible for defining EU policies on Industrial Property, which includes patents, trademarks, designs and geographical indications. The successful candidate will be seconded to DG GROW headquarters in Brussels within the Unit F/3, an enthusiastic, highly committed and collegial team of 20+ lawyers, economists and assistants in charge of developing the European Commission's policy on industrial property (IP) and the fight against counterfeiting.

DG GROW is looking for a committed and pro-active colleague with an economic and/or legal background, and with a keen interest and sound understanding of the challenges of IP protection in today's fast-changing world. The seconded staff member will contribute to the definition of EU policies on IP and may perform, amongst others, the following tasks:

- Preparing, reviewing and managing legislative files, to ensure that the industrial

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm. The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security. Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision. During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision. If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B4. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts). Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 13 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu. To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
